ENTRY LIST GROWS TO AROUND 220 DRIVERS FOR THE RMCET SEASON OPENER

Maglie, Italy
April 9th, 2025

The entry list for the opening round of the 2025 Rotax MAX Challenge Euro Trophy keeps growing. The number of drivers has risen to around 220, representing over 20 different nations, for the event at the ProKart Raceland in Wackersdorf.

The ProKart Raceland circuit in Wackersdorf, Germany, will host the highly anticipated season opener from April 23rd to 27th. As a traditional and iconic venue for the Euro Trophy, the German track continues to attract competitors from across the globe.

Senior MAX leads the entry charts with 98 drivers, followed by Junior MAX with 51 participants. The Belgian Cup by Mini MAX features 35 entries, while 31 drivers are set to compete across the DD2 and DD2 Masters categories.

A key highlight of the weekend will be the German Cup by Mini MAX, where the very first ticket for the 2025 Rotax MAX Challenge Grand Finals will be awarded.

A Look Back at 2024

The 2024 season delivered unpredictable racing, crowning the following drivers in Germany: Albert Friend (Mini MAX), Casper Nissen (Junior MAX), Matthew Higgins (Senior MAX), Enzo Bol (DD2) and Nicolas Picot (DD2 Masters).
